Frank Ralls is a composer, arranger and producer who lives with his wife and children in the Indianapolis area. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in music from Lawrence University (www.lawrence.edu) in Appleton, Wisconsin.

While completing his degree at Lawrence University Frank was privileged to study with internationally acclaimed composers and artists: Fred Sturm (www.fredsturm.com) Grammy nominee and Chair of Jazz and Improvisational Music at the Lawrence University Conservatory of Music in Appleton, Wisconsin, Jose Encarnacion - renowned jazz performing artist, and Matt Turner (www.improvcellist.com) - A Yamaha Performing Artist regarded as a highly accomplished jazz pianist and one of today's leading improv cellists.

As a drummer and pianist/keyboardist with over 20 years experience, Frank has performed live in numerous ensembles of many styles including classical, jazz, pop, and rock. As a published composer, arranger and producer Frank has worked on numerous singles and full length projects for over 10 years. His recent work includes full orchestral arrangements for Kieth O'Neil's 2006 release with EMI Records; piano, synth, and loop production for L A based session vocalist and Disney vocalist Steve Lively; and full production and arrangement credits on Matt Perkins (www.mattperkins.org) latest solo project, "Smile", which now features a number 1 radio single. Additionally Frank has been arranging for national choreographer Damon Brown and works closely with Gaither Studios (www.gaitherstudios.com).
